

Mariannina Antoinette Gray

August 23, 2009

Gray, Mariannia (Nina) Antoinette after losing a brief battle with cancer, went home to be with the Lord and Savior on Sunday, August 23, 2009 surrounded by her family at Bayfront Medical Center. Nina, as she was known to her family and friends was born in Charleston, West Virginia and moved to St. Petersburg when she was 12 years old. Her entire life was devoted to educating children. Mrs. Gray worked in the Pinellas County School System for 38 years as an educator finishing her career as an assistant principal at Lynch Elementary School. Nina was a devoted mother, grandmother sister, aunt, wife and friend. She was known as Nonna to her one year old grandon, who was the light of her life. She was the beloved wife of retired U.S. Navy SEABEE Chief Mechanic, Paul W. Gray, St. Petersburg; mother of, Christina

“ Paul - Husband posted a condolence Nina; Life will not be the same. Looking at the empty spaces is tough. I thank GOD for giving me the chance to do it right the second time. I think i did. You told me you prayed for a Christian Husband and a Father for your Daughter. Be careful what you pray for. You got the Husband you wanted, Chrissy got her Father, I got a Loving Wife and a Partner. My family is now so full of love - Sons & Daughters, their Spouses, many Grandchildren to spoil twice as bad (I have to do it for two). I know we all made out on the deal. It's not good bye Honey, it's just I will join you when God says I'm finished with this new job. IT'S ALL BECAUSE OF A BOX OF JUICE. All my love, The Chief
