

Mary Jane Menter Redfield

August 20, 2007

Redfield-Menter, Mary Jane 90 of Pinellas Park, Florida died Tuesday, August 14, 2007 at home surrounded by her loving family. Mrs. Redfield was born in Middletown, New York and lived in Tamarac, Florida before moving to Pinellas Park two years ago. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Middletown and graduated from Middletown High School class of 1936. She is survived by her husband: Lynn C. Redfield; a daughter: Robert M. Horodeck, Pinellas Park; a brother: W. Sayre Beakes, Middletown; two grandchildren, three great grandchildren and one great great grandchild.

Tribute Wall

“ The family of Mary Jane Menter Redfield uploaded a photo

August 19, 2019 at 12:00 AM

“ Richard A Babcock - Grandson posted a condolence Robbie, Tracie & Kellie, This is so hard for me to say. I lost the greatest woman I will ever meet. Your Oma made me and everyone she touched feel so very special. I feel so very sad for you girls. I want each of you to know that when Oma and I were ever alone talking that you Three were her world. She loved you guys so very much. I am going to miss her so very much. She welcomed me to your family with open arms without hesitation. I want to let you girls know that I am going to miss her so very much that I don't think I will ever be able to show or do anything that can make up for her loss. I want you to know that I will always be here for you. Robbie you are now the backbone of the family and You have the reigns. I will always follow your lead and complete any wishes you have. My dearest Kellie You have always made me feel welcome and your Oma talked of how proud she is you and Rick and the girls. I owe you an apology for not bringing Oma home sooner to see you and your family. To my dearest wife Tracie, I will always be by your side to comfort you and carry out your wishes. I guess what I am trying to say is, We Lost someone so special that no time or anything can heal my personal wound for her loss. I want you girls to know I truly love all of you very much. I Loved your Oma so very much. We all have alot of great memories to hold onto but it does not ease my sorrow. Please accept my condolences. I Love You Guys and will always miss her and be here for you. Rick

Richard A Babcock - Grandson - August 17, 2007 at 12:00 AM